Graupera Stone Heart

With organic shapes and glazed finishes, G.E.T.'s Graupera Stone Heart line is perfect for restaurants that need an on-trend and elevated oven-to-table porcelain alternative. Graupera's glazed terracotta is less porous and more break resistant than traditional terracotta products and allow operators to feel more at ease with finishing menu items in the oven and bringing the dish directly to their guests.

Reasons to Love:

- Heavyweight oven to table terracotta that has a unique glazed appearance and offers a similar look and feel as the porcelain alternative
- Comprehensive collection that covers a vast majority of tabletop, banqueting, and buffet needs

Everything You Need for Tabletop Guest Service

Not only do operators feel more comfortable with Graupera, your guests will be WOW'd by the beautiful glazed patterns. If your restaurant focuses on oven finishing or salamander heating solutions, Graupera's Stone Heart is the serveware collection for you!

Reasons to Love:

- Each piece has an edge that helps to avoid sauce runoff
- Fully-stocked and available - no MTO waiting required for samples and unit level orders
